

Sea Dog Nights Pirate Code Conduct

Article I: There be no invading and thievin'.

Golden Rule: If it is not yours (Unless you have permission):

- Do not touch it
- Do not climb on it (Booths, Ships, works of art for 'atmosphere') unless designated

Do not enter or walk through encampments and ships without permission

- "Permission to come aboard" - "Permission Granted"

Article II: Each Pirate Shall Keep the Peace.

- Do not sexually harass women unless they give permission
- All members of the pirate brotherhood shall demonstrate respect for all other pirates.

Article III: Young Lass's and Lad's - "Sprogs"

- Sprogs must be monitored at all times.
- No sprogs to be roaming without parents past the last fire show. (night actions are not appropriate for 18 and younger). Parents who roam with children at night take the risk of exposing them to adult activities.
- Sprogs must understand respectful rules when in merchant stores, no touching without permission
- If you bring sprogs, be vigilant and expect to pay for damages if damages occur. Have conversations with them about respecting property and rules.

Article IV: Creature Control

- Keep your Creature on a leash at all times. Is an EVENT Rule as well as a STATE Statute.
- Pick up thine creatures messes. Carry poop bags with you and use them.

We, as members of Staff want you, and your fellow attendees, to have a fun experience. It only takes ONE unruly person to ruin the experience for a multitude of people. Following these basic rules will help ensure that YOU are not "That" person.
